

WAR CAMP

JUNE 22ND-24TH, 2018 - LOCATION: TOP SECRET

On the 22nd June 2018, those scouts who have the courage to accept a challenge will be leaving for a secret location to battle it out against Scouts from across the District (about 7 different Scout Troops will be attending). A location so secret, that only those that accept the challenge will be notified of its whereabouts.

Scouts will be informed of the identity of their patrol once numbers have been confirmed. Previously 12th Caulfield commando scouts were successful in quashing the rebellion. However, there have been rumors that insurgents have infiltrated our security lines and even as we speak, they are preparing to lay siege to the entire area. It is therefore of utmost importance to the safety of camp life as we know it, that we not only ensure the safety of our own troops but that we also secure the perimeter of the grounds.

Patrols will be required to set up their campsites taking into consideration the need to be on the lookout for the enemy as well as the need to be prepared to defend your land if necessary
